VERSIONING
2 Released

As a general rule, SAP recommends that you install a solution by applying a Support Package. However, if you need to install the solution earlier, proceed as follows:

1. Apply the manual implementation steps.

Be aware of an Advance Delivery delivers the last version of the objects, it means that if you do not have the last HR Support Package installed in your system you could get errors, either Syntax Errors or process errors. In this case the only option is to undo the changes from Advance Delivery and do the changes manually according to the instructions in this note.

For more details about Advance Delivery installation procedure please read the notes listed in "Related Notes".

Risk and Restrictions inherent in Transport Files

If you use a Transport (SAR) file instead of installing the appropriate Support Package or CLC Package, please note the following:

- 1) Read carefully SAP Note 1318389, where conditions and risks of using Transport files are explained in detail.
- 2) There are no updates to Transport files when any object in them are modified. Objects contained in Transport files may become obsolete without warning.

- 3) Transport files are not valid once their content is available via Support Packages or CLC Packages. The changes may then be installed only via the Packages.
- 4) Text objects are provided in the language in which they were created. Translation is available only via the Packages.
- 5) Changes to the SAP Easy Access menu and Implementation Guide (IMG) are provided only via the Packages.

Caution: Handling Transport files

1. When you apply more than one Transport file, the order of implementation must be followed as indicated. A wrong sequence will cause transports to fail.
2. Once a Transport file has been installed, future installations of Support Packages (or CLC Packages for the HR components modified by the Transport file) must include the Packages that delivered the changes contained in the Transport file. Otherwise objects may be replaced by older versions.
3. If a Transport file contains customizing entries it must be imported in the client of the development system, in which you are normally creating your customizing changes. Otherwise the customizing will not be transported.
