Symptom

The following symptoms have been identified when running the SLD: fichero de bases (RPC_PAYES_CRETA_BASES) report:

1. The last working interval is not created when reporting a part time employee with an absence that starts and ends during the same month.
2. For months with absences with and without relapses (recaída), the absences that have no relapse are not reported (that is, the 603 - Cuota IT de AT y EP de situaciones espec. concept is missing for the interval of this absence).

Other Terms

&SLD (for more information, see SAP Note 1071282)

PC00_M04_CRETA_BASES

Reason and Prerequisites

1. The distribution of the bases leads to a higher amount in the first working interval, so no amount is left for the last interval.
2. When searching for absence relapses, the ones with no relapse were being incorrectly excluded and, therefore, the 603 concept was not generated for this interval.

The following Support Package level is the minimum prerequisite:

6.04	HR SP 80
